

Savitribai Phule Pune University

Department of Defence and Strategic Studies (DDSS), Yashwantrao Chavan National Centre of International Security and Defence Analysis (YC-NISDA)

is organizing a Lecture-cum-discussion on

An Assessment of the Post-Modi-XI-Summit: India-China Relations and the Role of Taiwan

by

Dr. Chen Mu-Min

Vice-President
International Affairs
National Chung Hsing University (NCHU)
Taichung, Taiwan

Prof. (Dr.) Vijay Khare
Head; DDSS, YC-NISDA

Day/Date: Saturday, 16th November, 2019

Venue : YC-NISDA Library Hall

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Bhavan, SPPU

Time : 11:00 a.m.

Dr. Chen Mu-min is a Professor and Vice-President of International Affairs, National Chung Hsing University (NCHU), Taichung, Taiwan. His areas of specialization are Post-positivist theories of international relations, regional studies of South Asia and the Middle East, non-traditional security, political and economic developments of China, China-Taiwan relations, China India relations.

Dr. Chen's discipline is Political & Economic Development in Contemporary China, Post-positivist Theories in International Relations, Politics and Economy in South Asia and the Middle East, Seminar on Ethnic Conflicts and State Cohesion, Seminar on Regional Security of South and Southeast Asia, Non-Traditional Security Studies, Looking at Global Politics Through Films, International Politics and Cross-Strait Relations,.

Dr. Chen's full CV can be viewed on: <https://gioip.nchu.edu.tw/en/Faculty2/FullTime/Chen-Mu-min-56286809>
